What the Job is Like: This is clerical work involving responsibility for independently performing a variety of tasks in connection with account-keeping and the financial accounting process. The work may require a general understanding of specific law, office rules, procedures and policies. This class differs from that of a Senior Account Clerk by virtue of the complexity of work being performed and the increased level of responsibilities. Work is performed according to prescribed policies and procedures under the general supervision of a designated superior with leeway to exercise independent judgment in carrying out the details of the work. This class may lead and direct the work of subordinate clerical staff. Incumbent does related work as required.

Subject of Examination: (Higher Level Account Clerical Series) A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Name and Number Checking - These questions test for the ability to distinguish between sets of words, letters, and/or numbers that are almost exactly alike. Material is usually presented in two or three columns, and you will have to determine how the entry in the first column compares with the entry in the second column and possibly the third. You will be instructed to mark your answers according to a designated code provided in the directions.

Fundamentals of Account Keeping and Bookkeeping - These questions test for a knowledge of basic principles and practices of account keeping and bookkeeping. The questions test for recognizing account keeping and bookkeeping terms, concepts and relationships; recording financial transactions; and solving elementary problems in account keeping and bookkeeping.

Arithmetic Computation with Calculator - These questions test for the ability to use a calculator to do basic computations. Questions will involve addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. You may also be asked to calculate averages, to use percents, and to round an answer to the nearest whole number. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.

Working with Office Records - These questions test your ability to work with office records. The test consists of two or more sets of questions, each set concerning a different problem. Typical record keeping problems might involve the organization or collation of numerical data from several sources; maintaining a record system using running balances; or completion of a table summarizing data using totals, subtotals, averages and percents. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone
