MANAGEMENT CLASS SPECIFICATION

TITLE: PRINCIPAL PROBATION OFFICER GRADE: 26

TITLE ABBREVIATION: PRIN PROB OFFICER TITLE NO.: 566540

JURIS.CL: C SALARY CODE: 03 EEO CODE: OA FLSA CODE: AD

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF PROBATION

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is a second-line supervisory position typically established in a Group C or Group D probation department containing fifty or more professional probation officer positions at various levels. This position may also be found in a Group B probation department with three or more Probation Supervisors I. A Principal Probation Officer is responsible for supervising Probation Supervisors 1 and other professional staff responsible for the control, supervision and care of adults and juveniles subject to court-ordered probation investigation, supervision or intake services which require them to meet certain standards of conduct. The position may also provide oversight of administrative and support staff. The incumbent may also administer special projects. The work is performed under the supervision of a Deputy Probation Director (Group C) with considerable leeway allowed to exercise independent judgment in carrying out the details of the work. This position differs from that of a Probation Supervisor 1 in that the work involves second-level supervision, directing the work of more than one unit and greater independence of action. A Principal Probation Officer is a Peace Officer pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10 and may be authorized to carry a firearm in the performance of his/her duties. The incumbent will perform all related duties as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Assigns work to Probation Supervisors 1 and supervises the professional probation work in multiple units of a probation department including planning, directing and coordinating the work, reviewing cases submitted by Probation Supervisors 1 for compliance and conferring with Probation Supervisors 1 regarding other aspects of the delivery of probation services;

Instructs professional probation personnel regarding rules, techniques and procedures applicable to cases and projects to ensure proper interviewing, report preparation, case record keeping and probation supervision;

Meets and coordinates probation services with other departments and service providers and represents the probation department on boards such as an alternatives-to-incarceration advisory board;

Meets and confers with judges, court personnel, attorneys and police regarding probation matters;

Reviews and responds appropriately to community complaint calls regarding lower level probation professionals;

Develops initial policies and procedures and makes recommendations to a Deputy Probation Director for review;

Provides information to a Deputy Probation Director related to the probation department's annual report to the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services' Office of Probation and Correctional Alternatives;

Prepares records and reports related to the work performed;

May meet with a budget director and provide information regarding the probation department's annual budget;

May perform some duties of a Probation Supervisor 1;

May use a firearm in performing duties and exercising authority pursuant to departmental policy.
